

Public Sale.

By virtue of an order issued from the hon. court of Calvert county, will be OFFERED at PUBLIC SALE, on the 28th day of August next, if fair, if not the first fair day thereafter, at the late mansion of BENJAMIN WARD, deceased, at the hour of 12 o'clock,

A VALUABLE plantation, containing 184 acres of land, lying on the Chesapeake bay, in Calvert county. The improvements are, a small dwelling-house, kitchen, tobacco house, corn house, and other out houses; a large orchard of fine fruit. This fertile spot has every advantage, it abounds in heavy timber, and has a great proportion of rich low ground, capable of being made into meadow at a very trifling expence. The soil is extremely rich—tobacco, wheat, rye, and Indian corn, grow with little labour—the neighbourhood affords a society of very genteel and friendly people—places of worship surround it—convenient to mills, and a warehouse for the inspection of tobacco within two miles of the premises. This land will be laid off in small parcels, or sold all together, as may best suit purchasers. Bond, with approved security, will be required, carrying interest from the day of sale, payable in two equal payments, the first in twelve, and the last in eighteen months from the day of sale.

FROM A LONDON PAPER.

A MODERN RAPE OF THE LOCK.

HAPPY the FRISEUR who in DELIA's hair
With licensed fingers uncontroul'd may rove,
And happy in his death the DANCING BEAR,
Who died to make pomatum for my LOVE.

Last night, as o'er the page of love's despair,
My DELIA bent deliciously to grieve;
I stood a treacherous loiterer by her chair,
And drew the FATAL SCISSARS from my sleeve.

And would that at that instant o'er my thread
The shears of ATROPOS had open'd then;
And when I left the lock from DELIA's head,
Had cut me sudden from the fons of men!

She heard the scissars that fair Lock divide,
And while my heart with transport panted big,
She cast a fury-frown on me, and cried,
'You stupid puppy—you have spoil'd my wig!'

TO any person who will bring to me, or secure him, so that I get him again, negro WILL, a small black fellow, about 25 years of age, who eloped from the subscriber, living near Pig Point, in Anne-Arundel county, on the 15th instant, about 3 o'clock in the morning; he had on when he went away, a round jacket of white kersey, turned up with blue, a red striped waistcoat, of nabrig shirt and trousers; he has a remarkable scar a little above his forehead, occasioned by a scald when young, if closely examined will discover guilt, about 5 feet 1 or 2 inches high; his father belongs to William Steuart, Esq; near South river church. Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Saturday the 1st instant, a brown negro man named GEORGE, the property of ROBERT WILLIAMS, he is about five feet ten inches high, his features are coarse, and he has a very ill look; it is uncertain what cloathing he took with him; he will no doubt attempt to pass for a free man; he was about a week ago harboured at Caesar Williams's, (a negro) living in Montgomery county, near the court-house; it is probable he may not remain long there, and will be strolling about the country, as he is a lazy drunken fellow.
